

CHRIS HERMAN - DEPUTY director

Chris Herman has worked in logistics and supply chain for 20 years and has experience working in all facets of the management of goods movement. He has managed supply chain operations, strategy, and optimization for companies in a diverse group of industries including agricultural, petrochemical, energy and direct-to-consumer retail.

Chris brought his talents to the Washington State Department of Transportation in 2012, where he led freight rail planning and policy and oversaw the department's freight rail grant and loan programs and managed the Washington State Grain Train.

A native of the Midwest, Chris enjoys the mountains and all things outdoors.