

HollyAnna Littlebull

Dynamic and results-driven leader with over 15 years of experience managing teams and operations in high-stress environments, she has a proven track record in public safety, mitigation, collaboration, coordination, and tactical, operational, and strategic planning. As an Administrator and Board of Directors Chair, she has excelled in communications and community relations, coordinating and maintaining cooperative working relationships with Federal, State, County, City, Tribal, and Non-Profit entities. She has developed and led community programs, served as an educator, and specialized in emergency management, grant writing, compliance, and management.

Committed to safety, efficiency, and quality, she believes in ecological stewardship, social justice, cultural diversity, and adaptive, innovative, creative thinking to create future solutions. She co-authored the Washington State Huckleberry House Bill, which was enacted into law.